Ambition

noun Desire and determination to achieve success.

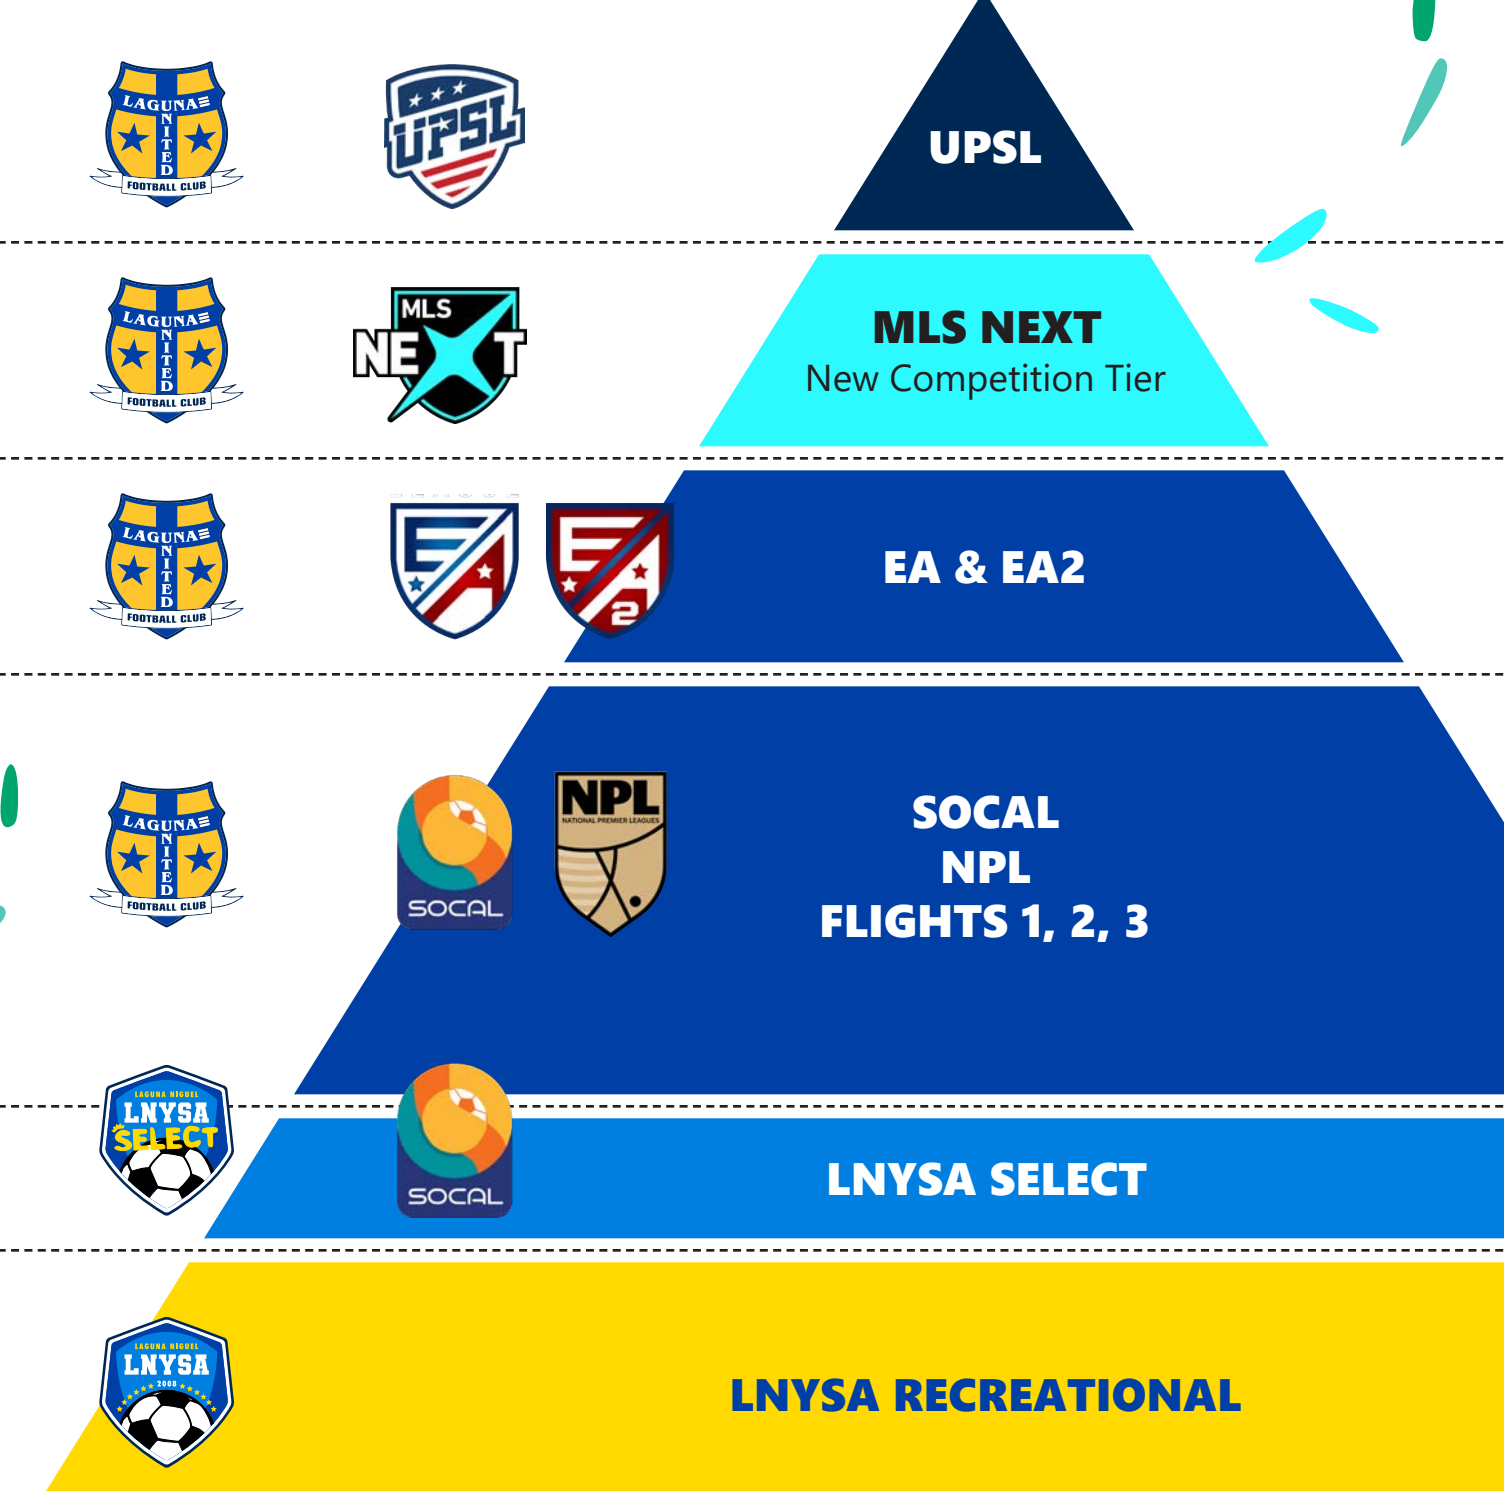

Laguna United FC is excited to announce that we will be joining MLS NEXT's new competition tier this fall!

Acceptance to MLS NEXT's new competition tier has been earned by all of the hard work and ambition behind our community of players, teams and families before us and with us. Our growth mindset and continual drive to provide our players with higher competition and exposure has created such opportunities. We are making history together.

As part of this new competition tier, we will participate in regular season matches beginning in September 2025 as well as regional tournaments and opportunities to attend MLS NEXT national events. Players competing in the new tier will also be eligible to play high school soccer. A full list of the divisions and participating clubs is available here.
